

GRANT OPPORTUNITY FOR SMALL BUSINESSES IMPACTED BY THE PARK FIRE

Small Business “Readiness for Resiliency”

EARLY REGISTRATION REQUIRED

With the growing intensity of natural disasters, R4R, created by the U.S. Chamber Foundation and FedEx, aims to help businesses remain operational after disaster strikes.

The program provides quick-turn relief funding of $5,000 for prepared businesses when a federal disaster declaration is made. This initiative is also supported by Allstate and American Express.

Eligible businesses need to complete 2 easy steps. As there hasn't been a Presidential declaration yet – this gives your businesses time now to complete the 2 steps so they may be eligible for an R4R grant!

(Not registering for R4R until after the declaration means no help with the current fire recovery.)

Here is more on the R4R program.

Step 1 is to download the checklist and complete an Emergency Action Plan.

Step 2 is register for R4R (takes 5 minutes).

Step 3 Once there is a Presidential declaration, those that have registered and meet the criteria, will be contacted by program staff.
